Farewell to Dennis Amanda - true gas, LNG and GTL pioneer

Dennis Bertuzi Amanda, was the person who gave LNG the oil-indexed price concept still alive today in over half the world's LNG contracts. More than that, Amanda, who died last week, was one of the commercial pioneers of the early European gas business, Pacific LNG and the gas manager of Shell Malaysia who won his company's sanction for the world's first commercial-scale GTL plant, the SMDS plant in Bintulu.
