Centrica sells PGNiG some US LNG volumes originally destined for the UK

Poland's state-run energy company PGNiG has signed central and eastern Europe's first mid-term LNG contract for US LNG, after agreeing a five-year supply deal with Centrica, which will use some of the volumes it secured from Sabine Pass for the UK to supply the Polish company.

PGNiG's contract with Centrica is on a 'delivered ex-ship' (DES) delivery basis and will begin in 2018. Centrica will deliver...
