'LNG glut conspicuously absent', says Shell, as output and sales break records

The importance of LNG to Shell's earnings and cash flow following its acquisition of BG Group in 2016 was evident at the company's financial results presentation in London last week. Both output and sales hit new records in 2017, and realised prices were significantly up on 2016.

Responding to a question from Gas Matters Today, CEO Ben van Beurden appeared ...
